All in the Family

By Leanne Shelton

With our busy lifestyles, it is often difficult to get the family together.

However, Morrie and Joy Lewis know they will always find their daughter Narelle Belinfante, her husband Garry and three of their grandchildren; Leanne, Simon and Marissa every Sunday night on the lanes at Tenpin City Lidcombe. The three generations of this family clan are members of Maccabi N.S.W Tenpin Bowling Club, and with Leanne's husband Justin Shelton also taking part, the bowling family tree continues to grow.

Morrie, aged 77, started ten-pin bowling in 1983. "I felt I was too young for lawn bowls, so I thought I'd give it a go," he said. Morrie established the team 'Morrie's Meshuganas', which was later shortened to 'Meshuganas'. After 27 years, he is still bowling under the same moniker. "I think it's the longest time anyone has bowled under the same name."

Morrie's wife Joy, 80, bowled beside him from 1985 until last year when she retired from the game. However, she still comes along to act as his cheer squad.

When asked how he feels about seeing the family every week at bowling, Morrie said, "It's fantastic!" Make your Sunday nights a family reunion too. Bring your relatives along for the short drive to Lidcombe and be prepared for a fun night!
